12 WAYS

TO BE A SUCCESSFUL STUDENT IN THE EYES OF YOUR PROFESSORS

Don't Overcommit Yourself – Being a Student is a Full Time Job

Your Professors and Teacher Assistants Want you to Succeed

Attend Office Hours and Let Them Know When You Need Help

Study and Complete Classwork Daily

Don't Let Your Work Pile Up to The Point It Becomes Unmanageable

Think About How You Learn Best and Implement Study Strategies to Take Advantage of Your Learning Style

Attend All Classes

This is The Best Way to Keep Up with Class Material

Be Professional in How You Communicate with Professors and University Staff (Carefully Consider Your Wording in Emails)

Follow Academic Honesty Policies

There Are Major Consequences for Cheating and It Is Not A Recipe for Success

Think of Your Coursework as A Pyramid

Each Year You Are Building the Foundation for Material Being Covered in The Following Year. Early Success Leads to Long-term Success!

Be Respectful of The Professor and Students in Your Class

Meet Course Deadlines

Then You Will Never Get Behind on Deadlines

Plan Now for Your Graduation

What Skills and Experiences Do You Want in College Which Will Help You Meet Your Goals?

You Are Responsible for Your Success! Your Professors Are Here to Help and Guide You, But You Individually Earn Your Degree!
