CAMPUS STORE

Dear Colleague,

Submitting adoption information on time is crucial to contributing to course materials affordability for our students. As such, we have extended the submission deadline to Tuesday, December 15.

The later adoptions are received, the more challenging it becomes for your campus store to secure your course materials for our students before the first day of class. Especially now, with the holidays approaching and with vendors and carriers working with limited resources, the window to ensure course materials are available before the first day of classes for our students is shrinking. Our students need your help!

The Follett Discover tool that is located within AccessUH is a fast and easy way to submit your adoptions – you can discover, research, and adopt course materials all in one place. Previous adoptions are also available for quick re-adoption.

In addition to adopting traditional print materials, Follett Discover makes it easy to search and adopt non-traditional materials such as YouTube videos, open education resources, and MOOC content.

Here's how to use it:

- Log into your AccessUH account.
- Select the UH Campus Store icon located under "University Services."
- Log into Office 365.

- If you receive an error message, log out of Office365 and log back in or try a different browser.
- Start discovering!

You may also watch a Follett Discover demo video to learn more:

If someone else submits adoptions on your behalf (faculty members, department administrators, graduate assistants, etc.), please have them contact me at s.eades@follett.com and I will happily assist with setting up their concierge accounts.

Should you receive an error message during your adoption process, please consult this page.

If you have trouble accessing or navigating through the Discover adoption tool, please contact me via email; I am more than happy to assist you!

Sincerely,

Your UH Campus Store Team
